A Royal Welcome Awaits...

This Charming spacious and elegantly presented Georgian Hotel, a landmark to local residents, is situated in the heart of Weston town with beautiful views overlooking the bay, the Somerset hills and in the distance the Welsh coast.

The Royal Hotel was the first hotel in Weston-Super-Mare opening in 1810, set in its own extensive lawns.

There are 44 unique and comfortable bedrooms, all with en-suite facilities, including tea & coffee making facilities, Flat Screen TVs with Freeview, Trouser Press, Telephone, Free Internet access and an early morning call facility.

The Golden Jubilee Restaurant epitomised the elegant Regency style for which Weston-Super-Mare was formally renowned. In these captivating surroundings you can enjoy dishes, selected from our appealing menu, which has been designed to tempt and excite all tastes.

The Feathers Bar is open daily and offers a wide selection of beverages to include Real Ales, Beers, and Wines & Spirits which can be enjoyed in a comfortable environment.

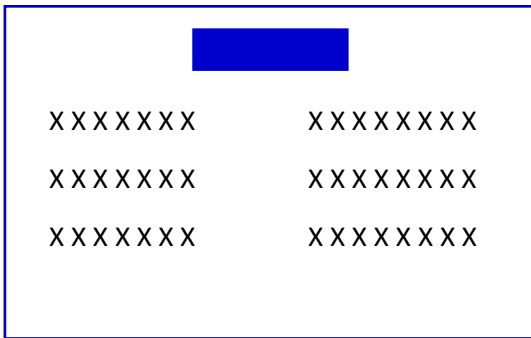

The Royal Hotel is accessible for guests travelling from far and wide, with 150 car parking spaces makes The Royal Hotel the perfect venue for your event.

Distance from M5:	4.2 Miles (10 minutes)
Distance from Bristol Airport:	15.6 Miles (26 minutes)
Distance from Weston Train Station:	1 Mile (4 minutes)

Directions:

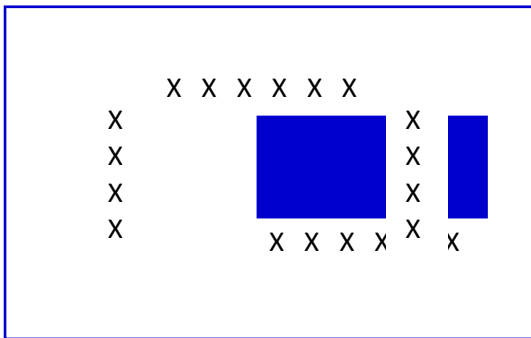

Exit the M5 Motorway at Junction 21 and proceed along the main dual carriageway following the signs to Weston-Super-Mare Sea Front, where you will find The Royal Hotel situated a short distance from the Grand Pier, adjacent to the Winter Gardens Pavilion.

Conference Lay-up Styles

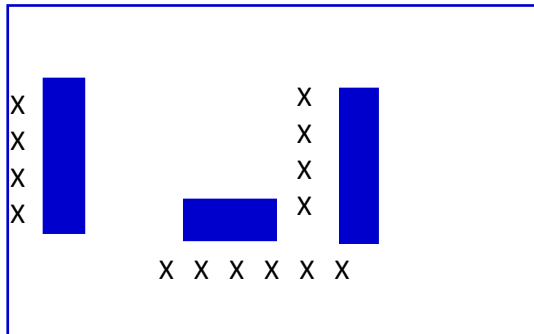

Theatre Style

Usually required for larger functions, lectures & meetings. This consists of rows of chairs with an aisle through the centre for easy accessibility. Refreshment stations and additional tables may be added.

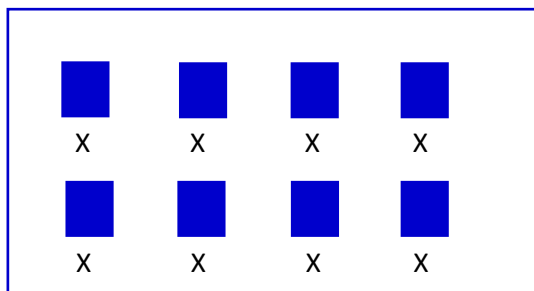

Boardroom

This style consists of one table with chairs around.

U Shape

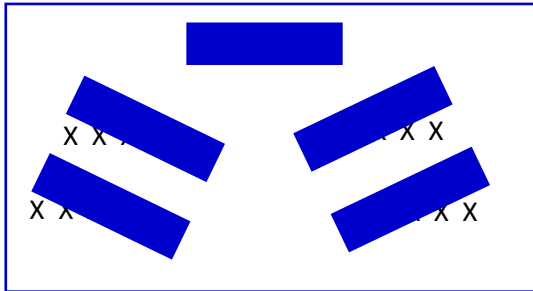

This style consists of tables placed together to form the shape of a "U". Chairs are then placed around the outside of the table.

Classroom

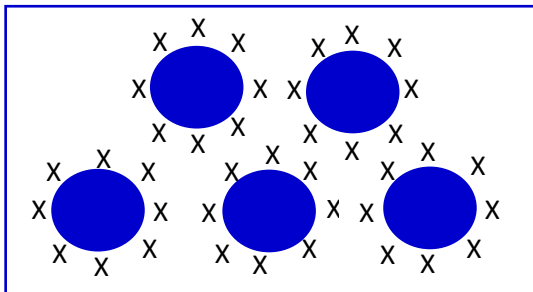

This Style is lots of single tables with one or two chairs placed behind each table. This is suitable for exams and training sessions.

Conference Lay-up Styles

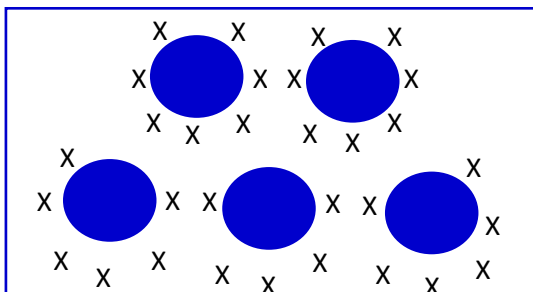

Herringbone Style

The Tables are turned at an angle towards the head table. This set up is used for presentations allowing everyone in the audience to face the speaker. Tables are used so delegates can make notes.

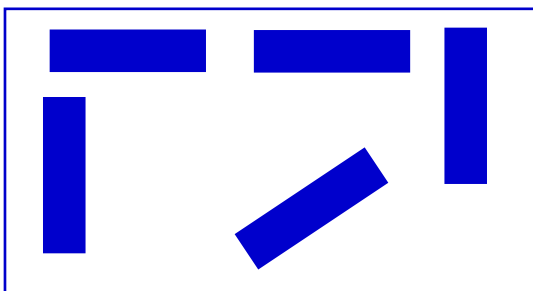

Banqueting Style

This layout consists of numerous round tables with chairs placed all around each table. This style is mainly used for dining events and parties.

Cabaret Style

This layout consists of numerous round tables with chairs placed 3/4 around each table. This is so no one has their backs facing the stage area.

Exhibitions

This layout varies depending on the clients requirements. We can assist in planning the best layout for your exhibition.
